What is conflict de-escalation and bystander training?
These trainings vary in their methods, but all have the aim of empowering individuals, including bystanders, to prevent the escalation of conflict.

More information on how to use this resource is below.

TRAININGS IN NEW YORK

Asian American Federation (AAF)
AAF serves the Asian American and immigrant community in New York City. They advocate for better policies, services, and funding that lead to more justice and opportunity for Asian immigrants. AAF launched the Hope Against Hate Campaign in response to the rise in anti-Asian incidents after Covid-19 outbreaks. The campaign works to establish safety ambassadors, support services for victims of hate incidents, and provide safety training.

NYC & surrounding areas

Contact info@aafederation.org for customized trainings

Virtual offerings

The Bridging Divides Initiative (BDI) is a non-partisan research initiative that tracks and mitigates political violence in the United States. BDI supports efforts to grow and build local community resilience through elections and other periods of heightened risk, laying a foundation for longer-term work to bridge the divides we face as a nation. Learn more at bridgingdivides.princeton.edu.
Center for Anti-Violence Education (CAE)
CAE works to prevent, disrupt, and heal from hate and violence. They do this through educational programs that center the experiences of people who are most marginalized. The Center provides after school programs for teens, free monthly community access workshops for adults, and customized workshops for workplaces, schools, community organizations, and large companies. Their upstander training helps participants walk away with a greater understanding of how to center humanity across identity groups and operationalize skills like de-escalation, active bystander interventions, and calling in/calling out strategies.

NYC & surrounding areas
Virtual offerings
Request information about customized trainings
Upcoming trainings

New York Peace Institute (NYPI)
NYPI empowers people to build stronger communities and navigate constructive paths forward in their conflicts. NYPI provides conflict resolution services—mediation, de-escalation, conflict coaching, community conferencing, and various other restorative processes—to thousands of New Yorkers each year. Additionally, they teach vital conflict resolution skills to communities and organizations while advancing the field by training and certifying professional mediators.

Brooklyn, Manhattan, & surrounding areas
Virtual offerings
Contact info@nypeace.org or request information for customized trainings
Upcoming trainings
Prepare Inc
Prepare is an educational services company that offers comprehensive violence prevention programs and evidence-based programs for personal safety, communication skills, self-defense, de-escalation, and allyship skills. These trainings are an important part of a larger movement to create social change, prevent abuse, and support healing. They are committed to a broad vision of societal response to violence. Prepare is part of Impact Violence Prevention, an affiliation of organizations that provides IMPACT curriculum. Each IMPACT chapter has its own organizational structure and programmatic focus.

NYC & the rest of NY/NJ
Virtual offerings

Contact info@prepareinc.com for customized trainings
Upcoming trainings
NATIONWIDE OR VIRTUAL TRAININGS & RESOURCES

DC Peace Team (DCPT)
DCPT provides training in nonviolent strategies and tactics including de-escalation and bystander intervention techniques. Additionally, they provide unarmed civilian protection and accompaniment in local communities including at public events including at rallies, protests, and demonstrations.

- ✉️ Request information about customized trainings
- 📅 Upcoming trainings
- 📲 Virtual offerings

Training Active Bystanders (TAB)
TAB is an innovative evidence-based program that trains participants on active bystander competencies and leads discussions on response plans in their communities.

- ✉️ Request information about customized trainings
- 📅 Upcoming bystander intervention trainings
- 📲 Virtual offerings

Right To Be
Right To Be is a movement-building social justice organization that focuses on turning care for each other into simple, creative, and effective action. Its mission is to train communities to build a world free of harassment and filled with humanity.

- ✉️ Request information about customized trainings
- 📅 Upcoming bystander intervention trainings
- 📅 Upcoming de-escalation trainings
- 📲 Virtual offerings
- 📖 Guide to the 5Ds of bystander intervention
NATIONWIDE OR VIRTUAL TRAININGS & RESOURCES

Cybersecurity & Infrastructure Security Agency (CISA)

A U.S. federal agency that aims to understand, manage, and reduce risk to cyber and physical infrastructure including election infrastructure.

- Election Security report — provides information on physical security preparedness at voting locations and election facilities.
- Personal Security Considerations fact sheet — outlines basic security measures to mitigate threats to personal safety.
- De-Escalation Series and the Power of Hello resource — provides information for critical infrastructure staff to identify potentially escalating situations, safely disengage, and report.
- Active Shooter Preparedness video — demonstrates possible actions that individuals can take if confronted with an active shooter scenario.

Community Relations Service (CRS)

A component of the Department of Justice, CRS works with community groups to resolve community conflicts or prevent and respond to alleged hate crimes. CRS trains representatives from government, faith organizations, law enforcement, civil rights groups, and other community organizations.

- Request information about customized trainings
- Learn more about CRS' training programs

For a full list of nationwide trainings visit, bridgingdivides.princeton.edu/community-resources/de-escalation-resources
WHO SHOULD USE THIS RESOURCE?

De-escalation and bystander intervention resources are intended to support efforts at the local level to prevent and mitigate potential violence, harassment, and abuse.

Local officials such as city council members, school board members, election officials, and poll workers may want to consider utilizing de-escalation and bystander intervention tools to prepare for potentially contentious public meetings and election administration.

Volunteers and community members, who are planning to attend potentially contentious meetings may use these resources to prepare and strategize and techniques to recognize and de-escalate conflict.

See BDI’s de-escalation guides for local officials and poll workers.

See DC Peace Team’s de-escalation and bystander intervention guide. DC Peace Team is a nonprofit that empowers ordinary civilians to become nonviolent agents of sustainable peace and justice.

If your organization offers trainings like these, please reach out to bdi@princeton.edu to be added to the directory.
WHAT CAN CONFLICT DE-ESCALATION LOOK LIKE?

Anyone (active bystander) can de-escalate tensions or harmful behavior by drawing on the CLARA method. However, before engaging in de-escalation, it is important to assess the situation, including your safety and others. Conflict de-escalation is not a technique that is appropriate for all circumstances.

CLARA

Calm and Center Yourself: Check in with yourself, appear calm, centered, and self-assured even if you don’t feel it. Avoid pointing, crossing your arms, or other more aggressive postures.

Listen: Let the person vent and be sure to listen explicitly for feelings, needs, or values.

Acknowledge: Begin by acknowledging the feelings, needs, or values you have heard. [Not about agreeing with their position, statement, or behavior.] ex. “I sense your aggravation at this situation. I hear your concern for safety.”

Respond: After acknowledgment, if there is a further threat of harassment or violence, offer open-ended or choice questions; address the issue; make a clear request or proposal. ex. “Will you tell me more about your concerns? “I understand you have every right to feel angry but it is not ok to threaten people here.”

Assess: Trust your instincts: If de-escalation is not working, STOP & GET HELP.